

Swimmers Code of Conduct

Sydney University Athletes are expected at all time to behave in a manner which reflects positively on both themselves and the club. This is to ensure each member aligns with our P.R.I.D.E. values.

Sydney University Swimming Club's Athlete Codes of Conduct are:

General:

- a) Be aware and follow Swimming Australia's Standards, rules, policies and procedures.
- b) Operate with the rules and spirit of the sport
- c) Always abide by Swimming Australia's Safe Sport Framework
- d) Report any breaches of the Swimming Australia Safe Sport Framework to the appropriate Person(s) in a Position of Authority
- e) Comply with Swimming Australia's Anti-Doping Policy and Illicit Drugs Policy at all times and any lawful demand by FINA, ASADA or WADA to undergo a test or provide a sample.
- f) Refrain from any form of abuse, harassment, discrimination and victimisation towards others.

Daily Training Environment:

- g) Be a positive role model to all and support our goal of creating a positive training environment to ensure yourself and your teammates can achieve their best
- h) Attend the agreed upon sessions and training requirements as indicated by their coach
- i) Contribute to a positive training environment
- j) Show concern and caution towards others that may be sick, injured or struggling
- k) Work equally hard for yourself and your team.
- l) Cooperate with coaches and staff in development of programs to adequately prepare you for competition at the highest level.

Camps & Competitions:

- m) Respect the rights, dignity and worth of fellow swimmers, coaches, officials and spectators.
- n) Attended all targeted meets throughout a season, should they qualify, as indicated by their Coaches
- o) Wear the Sydney University Team Uniform at all appropriate Camps and Competitions.
- p) When representing Sydney University, ensure to behave in an exemplary manner. This include at competitions as well as external camp and representative teams.
- q) The Sydney University Coaching Team holds the final interpretation on any of the rules, regulations and disciplinary actions. Failure to comply with this Code of Conduct may results in the athlete not participating in club events.

Any breach of the Athlete's Code of Conduct should be reported firstly to the Coaching Team and/or one Sydney Uni's Member Protection Information Officers.
